Miss Hannan Insists Her Charge Against the Officer Is True.

But for Her Mother's Arrest II Would Not Have Been Made.

Lizzie Lawlor, an Important Witness, Is Not to Be Found-

Some doubt has developed to-day as to the real facts in the case of Houndsman Mathew F. Dailey, of the Delancey street police sta-tion, who is accused of having assaulted Namie Hannan, the pretts sixteen-year-old daughter of Mrs. Annie Hannan, of 318 Mon-

The girl still insists that her charge is true-She tells a straightforward story and is specific in her allegations. Mamie declares that Lizzie Lawler, a sister of Policeman Lawler, of the East Twenty-second street station, was with her in Joseph Geller's saloon, at Broome and lut streets, where she claims the alleged assault was committed on the night of March 26, but the Lawlor woman cannot be found to substantiate Miss
